

PIABA Names 2004 Directors and Officers

NORMAN, Okla. November 4, 2003

The Public Investors Arbitration Bar Association (PIABA), a nationwide bar organization comprised of over 700 attorneys dedicated to the representation of individual investors in disputes with the securities industry, today announces the newly elected 2004 Directors and Officers of the Association.

At its October Directors' meeting in La Quinta, California, CO, Charles W. Austin, Jr. of Richmond, Virginia was elected President of the Association for 2004. In further action, Rosemary Shockman of Scottsdale, Arizona was elected Executive Vice-President/President Elect. Re-elected directors include Robert Banks, Portland, Oregon, Scot Bernstein, Sacramento, California and J. Pat Sadler, Atlanta, Georgia. Elected to his first term as a director was James D. Keeney of Sarasota, Florida.

"PIABA is extremely fortunate to have such a qualified and dedicated group of individuals joining the board of directors. Collectively, they bring many years experience in representing investors in their disputes against the securities industry. I know they will work well together to forward the mission of PIABA in promoting the interests of all public investors in all arbitration forums," said Robin Ringo, Executive Director of PIABA.

If you have questions concerning this notice, please contact:

Robin S. Ringo
Executive Director, Public Investors Arbitration Bar Association
<http://www.piaba.org>
1.888.621.7484